An Evening of Comedy by Ivybridge Theatre Company, 7.30pm on Friday and Saturday night @ The Watermark Tel 01752892220. Ivybridge Theatre Company members present 3 one-act comedy plays, "For Starters" by Nick Warburton – set in an hotel restaurant it is an amusing tale of Daisy, a new and rather nosy waitress and Roland, a regular and rather particular customer who gets more than he ordered. "Split Ends" by Frank Vickery – A very funny comedy, written with Frank Vickery's usual panache and style. Nancy and Cyril are to meet their son's girlfriend, Susan. Cyril, naturally bald, goes into hiding when his wig disappears and several hilarious mishaps ensue along the way... and "World Premiere" by Charles Mander – A fast-paced comedy about the tribulations of an amateur dramatic society gathering for the technical rehearsal of a play by their producer Gordon. Minus the set, director and stage crew, new-recruit Val frantically tries to improvise. Matters become increasingly frenetic with the arrival of Gordon's dipsomaniac wife Ruth, and an assortment of people totally unconnected with the drama group! Tickets £6.50, £6 Conc recommended viewing 16yrs +.

Not many bands can count Radiohead, Portishead, Elvis Costello, Robert Wyatt, Ben Folds, Ewan McGregor and Nick Hornby amongst their admirers, but The Unthanks occupy a unique place in music. Northumbria sisters Rachel and Becky Unthank are unsentimental young storytellers outside of time, forging links between folk worlds old, new and other. Staunch traditionalism and sonic adventure ought to be polar opposites, yet they are easy bedfellows in the gentle hands of The Unthanks; the British counterpart to the leftfield folk leanings of Sufjan Stevens, Bonnie Prince Billy, Tom Waits and Fleet Foxes, nominated for the Mercury Music Prize and present in The Best Albums of the Decade (worldwide, all genres) in The Guardian and Uncut. Described by Britain's leading music journalist Paul Morley as "absolutely exquisite", new album Here's The Tender Coming employs a kaleidoscope of unlikely instruments and arrangements.

"once in a blue moon type of every now and again, you hear music that is so complete, so wonderful, unique and yet familiar that it stops you in your tracks. They have that blue moon magic about them, and they have it in spades"
